

Are you from Burundi, Liberia or Rwanda?

On July 23, 2009, the Federal government cancelled the temporary suspension of deportations to Burundi, Liberia and Rwanda.

You should get legal advice as soon as possible because the limitation to make an application to stay in Canada on Humanitarian and Compassionate grounds is January 23, 2010.

This information does not affect you if you are a Canadian citizen, a Permanent Resident of Canada, or if Canada has already accepted you as a refugee or protected person.

If you are living with HIV, please call HALCO - HIV & AIDS Legal Clinic (Ontario) at telephone 416-340-7790 / 1-888-705-8889 or TTY 416-922-2352 / 1-866-513-9883.

If you are not living with HIV, please contact your immigration lawyer or local community legal clinic for advice as soon as possible. You can contact Legal Aid Ontario for the phone number of your local legal clinic:
www.lao.on.ca 1-800-668-8258 / TTY 1-866-641-8867.

You can get more information at:

www.ccrweb.ca/documents/infosheetmoratoria2009.pdf

(French: www.ccrweb.ca/documents/infosheetmoratoria2009FR.pdf)

